

A. Attribution on the order-book input that predicts price the injected signal, or queue imbalance on recorded books; dashed line = even spread

B. Correlation with a fixed rule trading at twice the TWAP pace

C. Cost advantage not explained by the fixed rule agents that did not finish the order are excluded: their cost is not comparable

D. Attribution on inventory and time remaining the two inputs carrying no market information

